

Wintrust Mortgage Corporation Acquires Mortgage Banking Assets of Professional Mortgage Partners

For Immediate Release:

LAKE FOREST, Ill., Dec. 23 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Wintrust Financial Corporation ("Wintrust" or "the Company") (Nasdaq: WTFC) announced the acquisition of certain assets and the assumption of certain liabilities of the mortgage banking business of Professional Mortgage Partners ("PMP") of Downers Grove, Illinois.

Founded in 1999 by President Barton Pitts and six other investors, PMP built its business into a reputable mortgage banking operation with 180 employees comprised of ten retail mortgage offices with nearly $1.6 billion in annual mortgage originations in 2008.

"The staff hired from PMP and their offices which we assumed are a perfect compliment to our Wintrust Mortgage Corporation operations," said Edward J. Wehmer, President & CEO of Wintrust. "Barton and his team bring a wealth of experience and professionalism to the organization and their retail offices give us expanded coverage across the greater Chicago metropolitan area."

"The addition of the staff hired from PMP and their offices will create one of the strongest mortgage lenders in the Chicago area," stated David Hrobon, President of Wintrust Mortgage Corporation (formerly known as WestAmerica Mortgage Company). "Combined we will have more than 500 employees, 27 retail offices and, based on historical results, almost $3 billion in annual mortgage originations."

"Joining Wintrust just made sense for us," observed Pitts. "Their community focus, financial strength and commitment to the customer fit perfectly with our philosophy at PMP. Teaming up with Wintrust will allow us to continue to do what we do best, but now with a $10 billion asset financial services holding company behind us. "Barton Pitts will assume the role of Executive Vice President for Wintrust Mortgage Corporation.

Terms of the Transaction

The terms of this cash transaction are not being disclosed by the parties; however, a significant portion of the purchase price for the PMP assets is conditioned upon certain future profitability measures. The transaction is not expected to have a material effect on Wintrust's 2008 or 2009 earnings per share.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of federal securities laws. Forward-looking information in this document can be identified through the use of words such as "may," "will," "intend," "plan," "project," "expect," "anticipate," "should," "would," "believe," "estimate," "contemplate," "possible," and "point." The forward-looking information is premised on many factors, some of which are outlined below. The Company intends such forward-looking statements to be covered by the safe harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, and is including this statement for purposes of invoking these safe harbor provisions. Such forward-looking statements may be deemed to include, among other things, statements relating to the Company's projected growth, anticipated improvements in earnings, earnings per share and other financial performance measures, and management's long-term performance goals, as well as statements relating to the anticipated effects on financial results of condition from expected developments or events, the Company's business and growth strategies, including anticipated internal growth, plans to form additional de novo banks and to open new branch offices, and to pursue additional potential development or acquisitions of banks, wealth management entities or specialty finance businesses. Actual results could differ materially from those addressed in the forward-looking statements as a result of numerous factors, including the following:

- Competitive pressures in the financial services business which may affect the pricing of the Company's loan and deposit products as well as its services (including wealth management services).
- Changes in the interest rate environment, which may influence, among other things, the growth of loans and deposits, the quality of the Company's loan portfolio, the pricing of loans and deposits and interest income.
- The extent of defaults and losses on our loan portfolio.
- Unexpected difficulties or unanticipated developments related to the Company's strategy of de novo bank formations and openings. De novo banks typically require 13 to 24 months of operations before becoming profitable, due to the impact of organizational and overhead expenses, the startup phase of generating deposits and the time lag typically involved in redeploying deposits into attractively priced loans and other higher yielding earning assets.
- The ability of the Company to obtain liquidity and income from the sale of premium finance receivables in the future and the unique collection and delinquency risks associated with such loans.
- Failure to identify and complete acquisitions in the future or unexpected difficulties or unanticipated developments related to the integration of acquired entities with the Company.
- Legislative or regulatory changes or actions, or significant litigation involving the Company.
- Changes in general economic conditions in the markets in which the Company operates.
- The ability of the Company to receive dividends from its subsidiaries.
- The loss of customers as a result of technological changes allowing consumers to complete their financial transactions without the use of a bank.
- The ability of the Company to attract and retain senior management experienced in the banking and financial services industries.
- The risk that the terms of the U.S. Treasury Department's Capital Purchase Program could change.
- The other risk factors set forth in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Therefore, there can be no assurances that future actual results will correspond to these forward-looking statements. The reader is cautioned not to place undue reliance on any forward looking statement made by or on behalf of Wintrust. Any such statement speaks only as of the date the statement was made or as of such date that may be referenced within the statement. The Company undertakes no obligation to release revisions to these forward-looking statements or reflect events or circumstances after the date of this press release. Persons are advised, however, to consult further disclosures management makes on related subjects in its reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and in its press releases.
